

THE MUSLIM PROTAGONIST

a synthesis of journeys

Columbia University's second annual symposium of Muslim and minority writers, artists and scholars on literature and art as agents of social, intellectual, and spiritual change — hosted by the Columbia Muslim Students Association and its student allies in the pursuit of challenging and reimagining protagonists and their narratives.

Fri
2.21

Story Slam

304 Held Auditorium, Barnard | 7 – 9 PM

7:00 PM DOORS OPEN

7:30 “Native Tongue” Story Slam

hosted by Aman Ali and featuring Cyrus McGoldrick, Linda Sarsour, Aizzah Fatima, Sameer Naseem & more

9:30 DOORS CLOSE

Sat
2.22

Symposium

IAB 417, Altschul Auditorium, SIPA | 8:30 AM – 7 PM

Prayer in Wien Hall | 1 – 7 PM

8:30 AM DOORS OPEN
Breakfast

9:30 Introductory Remarks

Qur'an recitation by Abdul Rafay Hanif

Remarks by Co-Chairs Haris Durrani & Mariam Elnozahy

Keynote

Wajahat Ali

10:15 Sufism and Storytelling

Sahar Ullah & Haroon Moghul in conversation

11:00 Exclusive Video

HM Naqvi

- 11:15 American and “Othered”?
Nsenga Knight, Sofia Quintero & Alex Rivera
- 12:30 BREAK
PM Noon prayer, lunch, book signings begin (books sold by McNally Jackson)
- 2:00 Exclusive Video
Mira Nair
- 2:15 Science Fiction, Fantasy and the Social Power of Imagination
Ibrahim Abdul-Matin moderates Saladin Ahmed, G. Willow Wilson & Alex Rivera
- 3:30 BREAK
Afternoon prayer, snacks, signings continue (books sold by McNally Jackson)
- 4:00 The American Muslim Protagonist
Wajahat Ali & Zareena Grewal in conversation
- 4:45 Concluding Remarks
Mirzya Syed
- A Synthesis of Journeys
Wajahat Ali moderates Ibrahim Abdul-Matin, Michael Muhammad Knight & G. Willow Wilson in conversation
- 6:10 BREAK
Evening prayer, signings continue (books sold by McNally Jackson)
- 7:00 DOORS CLOSE

Sun
2.23

Workshops & Seminars

Milbank Hall | 10:30 AM – 3 PM (Workshop times TBA)

From Manuscript to Bookshelf: Refining a pitch, finding an agent and publishing your novel
G. Willow Wilson

Q&A on Science Fiction and Fantasy
Saladin Ahmed

The Female Protagonist
Dina Nayeri & Jennifer Zobair in conversation, moderated by Jafreen Uddin

Workshop on Creative Non-Fiction
Michael Muhammad Knight